of the Federal Trade Commission and the Attorney General shall each submit to the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives a report-

(A) detailing the enforcement actions taken by the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice, respectively, over the preceding year in each case in which not less than one victim was an elder or that involved a financial scheme or scam that was either targeted directly toward or largely affected elders, including-

- (i) the name of the district where the case originated;
- (ii) the style of the case, including the case name and number;
- (iii) a description of the scheme or scam; and
- (iv) the outcome of the case.<sup>2</sup>

(B) with respect to the report by the Attorney General, including a link to the publicly available best practices identified under subsection (b)(1)(B) and the replication guides and training materials created or compiled under such subsection; and

(C) with respect to the report by the Federal Trade Commission, in relevant years, including information on-

(i) the newly created materials, guidance, or recommendations of the Senior Scams Prevention Advisory Group established under section 112 of the Stop Senior Scams Act and any relevant views or considerations made by members of the Advisory Group that were not included in the Advisory Group's model materials or considered an official recommendation by the Advisory Group;

(ii) the Senior Scams Prevention Advisory Group's findings about senior scams and industry educational materials and programs; and

(iii) any recommendations on ways stakeholders can continue to work together to reduce scams affecting seniors.
